Little Mutual Stories of Big Results

Policyholder Receives $3.40
For Every $1.00 InvestedTHE entire earnings of the Mutual Life of Canada are owned by the policyholders. The result of Policy No. 4,606 given below emphasizes the value of this principle of "mutuality".Policy No. 4,606—10 Payment Life—Issued in 1879 ($1,000 Payable at Death)THIS POLICYHOLDER PAID THE MUTUAL LIFE 10 Annual Premiums of $41.88 $418.80THE MUTUAL LIFE HAS PAID HIM
In Dividends $542.85

His policy is now worth in Cash $883.90 $1,426.75

Policyholder has $1,007.95 more than he paid in.

IN ADDITION

He has had insurance protection for 54 years.

The cash value will increase each year and he will receive a cheque annually for his share of the earnings of the Company.If he had taken a similar policy on a "without profits" or "non-participating" plan at the lowest known rate it would have cost him $365.50 (no dividends payable), while under the Mutual Life of Canada "with profits" plan he actually received back $124.05 more than he paid in premiums.You, too, can become a policyholder in this successful and sound Canadian company. Mail

YOUNG PEOPLE OF UNITED CHURCH

(By W. L. M.)

Due to the fact that an organ recital was given by Dr. A. Collingwood, F.R.C.O., Hon. L.T.C.L., the Young People attended and did not have their usual meeting in the church parlour.The monthly meeting of the executive and group leaders was held in the office of the church auditorium. The business was discussed and settled and the programme for the month of May planned. It is to be in keeping with the convention discussions and projects, and is entitled, "The Relationship of the Young People to their Elders."Each Sunday night discussion or address will be under different sub-headings and the first sub-heading will be entitled, "The Relationship of the Young People to that of the Business and Political World."Every one is cordially welcome to attend this series of discussions and addresses, which will end on the fifth Sunday as a debate. Come along and bring your friends.

HOUSEHOLD PRESERVATION OF EGGS

The outcome of investigational work in preserving eggs carried on for many years by the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa is that two preservatives, (1) lime-water and (2) "waterglass," have been proven eminently satisfactory and distinctly superior to the large number of the preparations tested.Lime-water is prepared by slaking freshly burnt quick lime, thinning with water to the consistency of cream and further diluting, with constant stirring, to the desired volume. The resultant lime-water may be used at once—without settling—or allowed to stand for an hour or so and the clear upper liquid poured off from the deposit of undis-solved (excess) lime. By following these directions and using quick-lime at the rate of 1 pound to 5 gallons of water, a "saturated" lime-water will be prepared suitable and satisfactory for the preservation of eggs. If quick-lime is not obtainable, slaked lime (hydrated lime) as used in the preparation of Bordeaux mixture may be used. The eggs, previously placed in a crock, water-tight barrel or other suitable receptacle, are covered with the limewater. Store in a cool place. Do not add salt to the lime-water, and the vessel containing the eggs should be kept covered.Water-glass, the well-known preservative, chemically known as silicate of soda, is readily obtainable at druggists and grocers, being sold in both liquid and solid form. It has been extensively experimented with, using solutions varying in strength from 2 to 10 per cent, i.e., 2 pounds to 10 pounds per 10 gallons of water; a 5 per cent solution gave better results than stronger solutions. It is readily soluble and no special directions for preparing this preservative solution are necessary.The result from "water-glass" have on the whole been very fairly satisfactory but lime-water has proved superior in the Ottawa tests—the eggs, on breaking, showing less discoloration of the "whites" with more globular yolks.The essentials necessary to good results are: (1) That perfectly fresh eggs only should be used. (2) That the eggs throughout the whole period of preservation should be completely immersed even until required for use. (3) That the eggs should be stored in a cool place. A temperature of 40 to 45 degrees F. undoubtedly assists materially towards retaining good flavour.

BOYSCOUT COLUMN

1st Kelowna Troop
Troop First! Self Last!

Edited by S.M.

May 2nd, 1933.

Orders for the week ending Thursday, May 11th, 1933:Duties: Orderly patrol for the week, Otters; next for duty, Beavers.Rallies: The Troop will rally in the Hall on Thursday, May 4th, at 7:15 p.m. There will be no parades on Monday, the 8th inst., as the Hall is engaged by the Sea Cadets for that date.You will all note the change from Friday night to Thursday for this week's rally. We are going to try and hold these parades on Thursdays from now on, as the S.M. is free on this evening and able to give more time to them.We are glad to welcome Michael Talbot on his return to our ranks. He has been living at Oyma for the last few months. Two new recruits are Cameron Maddin and Leonard Walker; they are posted on the waiting list for the meantime. This brings our strength up to thirty-five, and we expect to form a new patrol shortly to take care of our waiting list.At present the marks in the Patrol Competition are as follows: Wolves, 1,082; Otters, 1,037; Eagles, 1,023; Beavers, 940.The response to the questions published in this column two weeks ago was very poor. Only three, all P.L.s., handed in their answers. For their benefit we give the correct answers:

- (1) Be Prepared.
- (2) Troop First, Self Last.
- (3) 1st Kelowna, 1st Rutland, 1st and 1st Vernon, 1st Salmon Arm.
- (4) The Hoist.
- (5) Sheet Bend.
- (6) Bowline.
- (7) A "hawser laid" rope is one in which the strands run from right top to left bottom when it is held up in front of you.

(8) Fourth, "A Scout is clean in thought, word, and deed." (9) First, "A Scout's Honour is to be trusted."
(10) You draw your patrol animal or bird, according to the official drawing of same in our handbook, and off the upper left hand corner you put down your patrol number and off the lower right hand corner you put your number and first and last letters of your Troop's name; i.e., "1 K."

Scout Notes Of Interest

It is expected that many of the Catholic Boy Scouts attending this year's Scout gathering in Hungary will visit Rome and be received at the Vatican before their return.The Rovers (older Scouts) and Rangers (older Guides) of England now have their joint publication, a quarterly magazine, "Rora." The title represents the first two letters of Rover and Ranger. "Rora" carries information of common interest on folk dancing, play acting, hiking, music, etc.The latest startling development in flying was the successful carrying of mail by glider, or motorless airplane, from Vienna to Semmering. A postcard thus started on its way was received at International Scout Headquarters, London, from Austrian Scout Headquarters in Vienna.During a recent visit of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell to Rome, the Holiness the Pope once again expressed his approval of Scouting, and its disregard of class ties and race. He recalled his pleasure at the visit to Rome four years ago of a pilgrimage of 10, 000 Catholic Boy Scouts of many countries.Local Boy Scout drives to help bring back in Canada the healthful practice of eating apples "out of hand," to the mutual benefit of consumers, Canadian apple growers and local Scouting finances during this difficult period, are again under way in various parts of the Dominion. Last year, "Scout Apple Days" were held in just fifty cities and towns, including Saint John, N.B., where the first was held; Sydney,
New Glasgow, Moncton, Fredericton, Toronto, Oshawa, Chatham, Brantford, Owen Sound, Windsor, London England, and many others. The approximate equivalent of 2,700 boxes or 800 barrels were sold. In some cases the apples were bought direct from the growers.

THE SPOKEN WORD

We live in an age of speech, the spoken word over the radio, then again we hear it expressed in the "talkies," and so it is we hear it expressed everywhere. In public speaking, how necessary to produce the voice to carry the purpose, to speak correctly, to gain assurance, confidence, ability to hold an audience. In elocutionary art to interpret with artistic knowledge. In dramatic art, freedom of action, interpretative ability, artistic representation.Mrs. J. P. Ferguson, F.T.C.L., Fellow of Trinity College, London England, adjudicator in elocution for three years at the Okanagan Musical Festival, is giving a nine weeks summer school course for teachers and others.
Subjects: phonetics, public speaking, elocution, dramatic art, vocal training.
Studio, 219 Empire Building, Vancouver.All pigeons are fond of salt dainties, says the Dominion Department of Agriculture, and, when procurable, salt codfish will form a relished addition to the regular feed.Fur animals in captivity, particularly foxes and mink, are subject to a disease similar in many respects to distemper in a dog.SUPPORT KELOWNA'S BIG

RUTLAND

Miss Ruth Steele, of Sicamous, is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
F. L. Fitzpatrick.The Women's Association of the United Church held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. W. McDonald on Wednesday afternoon last. The ladies are planning a Birthday Tea, to be held at the home of Mrs. J. F.
Guest on May 26th.The Rutland Cannery commenced a short run on asparagus on Thursday.
The supplies come from J. W. Hughes plantings near Black Mountain. So far, only part time has been run, but the work is welcomed, nevertheless.The Ladies Guild of the Anglican Church held a Jubilee Sale in the Community Hall, on Thursday afternoon, which realized the sum of $52.07.Two local teams engaged in softball games on Sunday last. The Y.C.S. team played in Kelowna, winning by a 2 to 1 score, while at Rutland a pickup team lost to East Kelowna by 29 runs to 12.The Farmers' Institute meeting, held in Gray's packing house on Monday evening, was only fairly well attended, some twenty growers turning out to hear a very interesting and graphic description of experimental work at the East Malling and other stations in England by R. C. Palmer, Superintendent of the Summerland Experimental Station. The speaker also took his hearers on a brief tour of parts of France, which he visited while a delegate to a convention in Paris. His description of places visited proved very entertaining. (In Paris, of course, a good deal of information was gained about "Parisites.")The meeting extended a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Palmer for his address. A discussion of some B.C.F.
G.A. matters was then introduced, but it was decided to leave these matters to a special B.C.F.G.A. meeting to be held to consider the recommendations of the provisional executive.

LIFETIME OF ADVENTURE ALL IN ONE NIGHT

"Rome Express" Is Picture Crowded With Action"Rome Express," a Gaumont British picture, released by Universal, comes to the Empress Theatre on Friday and Saturday. It gives "a lifetime of adventure in one night on a train," and features Esther Ralston and Conrad Veidt. Supporting British players are Cedric Harwicke, Joan Barry, Harold Huth and a number of others. The picture is said to be intensely dramatic.

"Peach O'Reno" And "The Devil Is Driving"

Mixing a brand new assortment of comedy gags with music and the ludicrously funny situation of two lawyers in the midst of the Reno divorce mill, the inimitable Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey are scheduled to make another triumphant return to the theatre on Monday and Tuesday in "Peach O'Reno." As in former Wheeler and Woolsey comedies, Dorothy Lee provides the romantic interest.Organized automobile stealing, latest of the rackets to pay a dividend to the underworld, forms the basis of the plot of "The Devil Is Driving," the other picture on the double bill for Monday and Tuesday. It features Edmund Lowe, Wynne Gibson, James Gleason, Lois Wilson and others.W. Somerset Maugham's famous story "Rain," with Joan Crawford in the leading role of Sadie Thompson, comes to the theatre on Wednesday and Thursday. Supporting the star are Walter Huston, William Gargan, Matt
Moore, Guy Kibbee, Walter Catlett and a large assembly of players. The entire company was transported to the isthmus on Catalina Island, where it remained upon location for two months.

POISONED BRAN FOR CUTWORMS

Most of the insects affecting the crops in the farmer's vegetable garden attack only one crop or plant family, but the cutworm is less discriminating in its taste and is a general danger.
Keeping the land clear, of course, of all material likely to afford winter shelter for insects is the most effective way of preventing cutworm attacks, but when an attack does occur the use of poisoned bait is recommended. The Dominion Entomologist, Mr. Arthur Gibson, advises the following for the purpose: bran, 20 lbs.; Paris green, 1/2 lb.; molasses, 1 quart; water, 2 to 3 gallons. Mix the bran and Paris green thoroughly in a wash tub, while dry.
Dissolve the molasses in the water and wet the bran and poison mixture, stirring well so as to dampen the bran thoroughly.A simple formula for small gardens is one quart of bran, one teaspoonful of Paris green, one tablespoonful of molasses, with sufficient water to moisten the bran. Shorts or middlings can also be used in place of the bran. In gardens containing rows of vegetables, the mixture should be scattered thinly along the rows on either side, as soon as the cutworm injury is noticed.
Flowering plants may be protected by placing a small quantity of the poisoned bran around, but not touching, each plant.It is important that the poisoned bran be scattered after sundown so that it will be in the very best condition to attract the cutworms when they come out to feed at night. In small gardens, as soon as the cutworm injury is observed, the culprits can as a rule be easily located in the soil, about an inch or so beneath the surface and within a radius of a few inches of the plant, and can be destroyed by hand.

1ST RUTLAND TROOP

"Do A Good Turn Daily"

Orders for the week ending May 6th:
The Troop will parade on the School field on Friday, at 7:30 p.m. sharp.
Uniform to be worn.
Duty Patrol: Beavers.Some 24 Scouts answered the roll for the meeting at the School field on Friday last, which was a fair attendance considering the counter attraction of the Musical Festival in which some Scouts were taking part.Softball was first on the programme, and when it became too dark a relay race was run, or rather walked, in which the contestants walked from post to post and delivered a verbal message to successive members of their teams. The final results were very abbreviated versions of the message first sent.Patrol Leaders then took charge and instructed their patrols in "corners" in the basement in semaphore signalling, and first aid. District Commissioner Weddell was a visitor to the meeting and presented badges to Scouts earning them during the past season. He also presented an Assistant Scoutmaster's warrant to A. K. Bond, who has risen from a Wolf Cub in the local pack to be in succession Sixer, Senior Sixer, Scout, Second, P.L., Troop Leader and now Assistant Scoutmaster.The District Commissioner spoke a few words of encouragement to the Troop, and the meeting closed with cheers for the D. C. and for the newly warranted A.S.M.The Beaver patrol won the patrol competition for the period ending with the annual entertainment. The new competition now under way shows the Eagles leading by a small margin. This competition will run until camp.
—A.W.G.Binks—"That young Gasher used to be speed crazy. What did it ever get him?"
Jinks—"Oh, a very nice funeral."

PRIZE LIST

The events are taken in the order of the programme, followed in some cases by the adjudicators' comments on the performances of the winners. It should be noted that this year certificates were awarded for first and second places instead of medals, only two or three of which were awarded in selected classes.

Pianoforte duet, 16 years and under. One entry. "Happy Song" (Swinstead). Nancy Reid and Dorothy Cross, Kelowna, received 82 marks.

Boys' solo, 12 years and under.

Three entries. "Where the Pools are Bright and Deep" (Lloyd). 1st, Lyle Sanger, Kelowna, 79; 2nd, Ian McEwan, Kelowna, 75.

Young vocalist, low voice. One entry. "The Birds" (Schubert). Beatrice Eutin, Rutland, 74 marks. The adjudicator regretted to find only one in this class out of the whole valley. He commended the young lady for her pluck in entering, stating that her voice had expressive possibilities.

Pianoforte, 16 years and under. Two entries. Minuet, with variations, by Arne, and "The Swan" (Palmgren). 1st, Marjorie Rolston, Vernon, 165; 2nd, Arthur Burtch, Kelowna, 162. "Easy flow, nicely controlled."

Pianoforte duet, 12 years and under. Two entries. "Lament" and "Musical Box" from "Tales from Two" by Kingsley. 1st, Helen McDougall and Adelaide McWilliams, Kelowna, 174; 2nd, Betty and Hilda Comber, Armstrong, 161. The adjudicator got much joy out of this class. "Winners gave the best performance of the afternoon."

Pianoforte sight-playing, open. One entry. Test piece chosen by the adjudicator. Cyril S. Mossop, Summerland, 175. "A joy to see a player of this calibre. A solitary but excellent entry."

Original composition, open (a new class this year). One amateur and one professional entry. 1st, Cyril Mossop, whose compositions were entitled "Prelude" and "Morceau de Salon," 153 marks in the professional class; 2nd, Oswald S. Jones, Okanagan Mission, whose compositions were "Nunc Dimittis" and "St. John the Baptist," for which he received 139 marks. "If you want to be a good composer, first make sure of a good technical equipment."

Selections by the Kelowna Concert Orchestra under the baton of Mr. A. C. Guild opened Thursday evening's performance. Their playing was greatly enjoyed by the large audience.

Pianoforte, 10 years and under. Nine entries. Minuet in G (Bach) and Melodie (Schumann). 1st, Dorothy Rhodes, Kelowna, 166; 2nd, Sheila Wright, Kelowna, 164; 3rd, Muriel Gervers, 162. "Capital idea of right pace, finger work neat."

Pianoforte, open. Three entries. "Romance in F Sharp," No. 2, Op. 28 (Thumer-Schumann) and "Valse Capricieuse" (Bridge). 1st, Billie Shugg, Kelowna, 172; 2nd, Helen Nighswander, Penticton, 157. "Well knit, melodic line."

Young vocalist, high voice. Two entries. "I'll Rock you to Rest" (Stanford). 1st, Guy Fisher, Kelowna, 83; 2nd, Phyllis Drew, Vernon, 81. "Should be twenty-two entries instead of two in this class. Winner had good, secure tone."

Pianoforte, 12 years and under. Six entries. Rondino (Williams) and "A Little Tune" (Williams). 1st, Enid Eutin, Rutland, 168; 2nd, Jean Murphy, Lumby, 162. "Buoyant, dancing rhythm. A promising player."

Vocal solo, soprano, open. One entry. "Say ye who borrow" (Mozart) and "Windy Nights" (Stanford). Dorothy Hammond, Kelowna, 163. "Charm in colour of voice, but more vitality needed."

Irrigation is on again and farmers are busy using the pipes and flumes which were out four years ago. When will fruit growing pay for the setting up of new flumes?

"The Belfast News-Letter" of Monday, March 20th, sent from Ireland by Miss Hicks, contains the following paragraph:

"Have you heard of Oropoko? It is not a secret society in Russia, but a serpent which, according to Indian tradition, haunts the beautiful Okanagan Lake in Canada. A fairly good likeness of this mysterious creature can be conveyed by the different accounts given by those who have been privileged to gaze upon it. It is of enormous size, coloured black, with a snout like a dog and large flappers close to the head. It emits a loud whirring noise—like a motor launch. Unlike the serpent of a certain South African river, which consumes human beings as well as other small fry, the Canadian creature is quite harmless, and it has been suggested that the inhabitants of that part of the world might well tame it. If his singular objective might be achieved, a unique attraction would be added to the already vast attractions of this lovely region. But one wonderer if the almost legendary beauties of the Okanagan have not lent a touch of romance to the imaginings of the local inhabitants."

"Legendary beauties"—is that Irish sarcasm?

Guests from Kelowna at a very enjoyable bridge given by Mrs. R. W. Andrews on Saturday, April 29th, were Mrs. Hockin, Mr. and Mrs. Green-side and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cameron.

Mrs. P. Ward was a visitor at the home of Mrs. W. Harvey for a few days last week.

The fire behind Percy Cookson's last week caused some excitement for a time. The Glenmore men again dashed out to "save our forests," luckily not a hard job since things are still green.

Glenmore took its revenge on Ellison (not Winfield, a mistake made by your correspondent last week) on Sunday afternoon, coming out at the best end of a 27-9 score.

On being asked if she knew of any new items, one Glenmore lady replied, "Put in that I am spring cleaning." From all the receivers down on the party line came an echo, "But aren't we all?"

Glenmore carried on the good work in softball by defeating the North End 11 runs to 9, Tuesday evening. The new material on the team is showing up well and "on to victory" is the cry.

An unfortunate error in the report of the Dramatic Society's annual meeting substituted Mr. Watson's name for that of Mr. Wilson as Vice-President of the Society.

We have been told that a very interesting topic has been chosen for the ladies to discuss at the next Guild meeting, to be held at the home of Mrs. R. W. Corner, Tuesday, May 9th.

"Uncle, you're not married, are you?" "No, darling."

"Then who tells you what you ought not to do?"

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

PROVINCE IS SAVED! C.C.F. TO THE RESCUE

Vernon, B.C.,
May 1, 1933

To the Editors, Vernon News and Kelowna Courier.

Dear Sir,
After listening to W. J. Bowser, K.C., and his lieutenants, Dugald Donaghy, K.C., and Dr. Hall, leaders of the so-called non-partisan group, many have come to the following conclusions, namely:—

That on account of his age Mr. Bowser is obviously no longer physically fit to fulfill the duties of Premier of B.C. during the present crisis. Secondly, that the Bowser group simply represents the views of those who made, and those who advocate, the findings of the Kidd Report. "A report," to use the words of one of Canada's leading economists, Dr. Carrothers, "made by capitalists for capitalists."

Mr. Bowser states that, what with borrowings from the Dominion Government and banks for unemployment relief, maturing bonds, etc., the cost of government for the year 1932-1933 is $29,000,000. Revenues amounted to $18,000,000. Deficit, $11,000,000.

These figures are no doubt correct and Mr. Bowser is prepared, if elected to office, to reduce expenditure by no less than $9,000,000. He is, however, very careful not to state how this can be accomplished.

It is well for the people of B.C. to realize that this saving can only be accomplished by the closing of schools, abandonment of roads and suspension of the social services of the province.

The increased deflation by the withdrawal of this huge sum from circulation can but add to the total distress and poverty of the people of B.C. But what does that matter as long as her bondholders are paid in full?

In order to fool the people, Mr. Bowser states he would help the municipalities and Irrigation Districts. He is careful not to commit himself, however, and those behind his non-partisan government will see that the $9,000,000 is saved and the Irrigation Districts and Municipalities are left.

There is no question that, in the Okanagan, the debt charges on money borrowed by the Irrigation Districts from the Conservation Fund will have to be wiped out if the irrigationists are to survive. Whether all the money borrowed has been spent wisely by the districts does not alter the situation. The money is gone and cannot be recalled.

The financial position of the province of B.C. is exactly the same as the Irrigation Districts of the Okanagan. Money was borrowed and lent, wisely and unwisely, and now, under totally

SALVATION ARMY ANNUAL SELF DENIAL APPEAL

To the people of Kelowna:
It may be interesting to the people of Kelowna to know something of the great work our organization is carrying on in this time of distress and need that we are experiencing at present.

In the past year, 34,670,115 meals have been supplied and 12,147,299 beds; 340,839 men have been found employment; in our women's institutions whom 28,735 have been cared for, of 29,035 women have been passed out satisfactorily; in our prison gate institutions 3,254 ex-prisoners have received care and help, out of whom 3,032 have turned out well. In addition, 34 naval and military homes have been operated for men away from home influence, and 104 orphan homes, where an enormous number of orphans are nurtured. There are also the leper colonies in the Dutch East Indies, where thousands of outcasts receive care, besides many other branches not mentioned and, last but not least, the poor in eighty-four countries and colonies, who have the Gospel preached to them.

On behalf of the Salvation Army, I wish to thank the people of Kelowna for their generous support of this worthy cause in the days that are past and to express the hope that their expression of sympathy this year may be as practical as possible.

Yours sincerely,

ENSIGN D. HAMMOND.

changed and unforeseen conditions, the debt charges are greater than the province can possibly carry. But the Kidd Report and Mr. Bowser would tell us that bonds are more sacred than lives.

Last year the revenues of B.C. fell from $23,000,000 to $18,000,000, twenty-five per cent. There can be no doubt that the revenue this year will fall another twenty-five per cent, or to about $13,500,000. Fixed charges next year will amount to $10,000,000, leaving about $3,500,000 for all other purposes;

which will bring us to an impasse.

The only political party in Canada mands a fundamental change to save

Suggest a name for Miss Alice Moir's

Everybody's naming Magic Mystery Cakes...
What's your suggestion this month?

JUST think of the things you could do with that $250 prize! There's nothing hard about this contest, either. You name the mystery cake—that's all!

Miss Alice Moir has contributed the recipe for this Magic Mystery Cake. It's a cake you'll like. Attractive. Delicious.
Easy to make and inexpensive.

Start right in today to think up a name for this Mystery Cake. Read the recipe.
Sounds good, doesn't it? And it is good. If you make the cake, be sure to follow Miss Moir's advice—use Magic Baking Powder.

Magic gives consistently better baking results. That's the reason the majority of dictionaries and cookery experts throughout Canada use it exclusively. They know from experience that Magic is always dependable.

Don't put off entering this Magic Contest.
There are 63 prizes—and the name you suggest may easily win one of them.

Here's Miss Alice Moir's recipe...
Can you name it?

Mix and sift 2 cups pastry flour (or 1 1/4 cups bread flour) with 3 teaspoons Magic Baking Powder and 1/4 teaspoon salt; cream 1/2 cup butter, add 1 cup fine sugar, beat until very light. Add well-beaten yolks of 3 eggs, then sifted dry ingredients alternately with 1/2 cup milk; add 1/4 teaspoon vanilla. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Fill buttered pans 2/3 full.
Bake in moderate oven 350° F. 25 min.

FILLING: Cream 3 tablespoons butter, gradually add about 1 1/4 cups confectioner's sugar, 1 teaspoon very strong coffee, 1/4 teaspoon vanilla and enough cream to make mixture of consistency to spread. Fold in 2 tablespoons of almonds which have been blanched and lightly browned in oven and rolled fine with rolling pin. Spread between layers.

FROSTING: Place 1 cup brown sugar and 1/2 cup boiling water in saucepan. Stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved.
Boil gently without stirring until a soft ball is formed when tried in cold water, or syrup spins thread 3 in. long when dropped from spoon. Cool gradually.
Add slowly to stiffly beaten white of 1 egg. Beat until it thickens. Add 1/4 teaspoon vanilla. Spread thickly over cake and sprinkle with rolled burnt almonds.

Contest Rules Read Carefully

1 Contest is for residents of Canada and Newfoundland only.

2 All you do is name the mystery cake.
Only one name from each person.

3 PRINT at the top of your paper in ink (or typewrite) "Miss Moir's Mystery Cake." Under this, print your suggestion for a name. Then, in the lower right-hand corner, print your own name and address, clearly and neatly. Do not use pencil.

4 Do not send the cake itself—just the name and your own name and address.
It is not essential to bake the cake to enter the contest.

5 Members of our own organization or their relatives are not eligible to take part in this contest.

6 Contest closes MAY 31, 1933. No entries considered if postmarked later than May 31 midnight. No entries considered if forwarded with insufficient postage.

7 Judges: Winning names will be selected by a committee of three impartial judges.
The decision of these judges will be final.

8 Prize winners will be announced to all entrants within one month after contest closes.

9 In case of a tie, the full amount of the prize money will be paid to each tying contestant.

10 Where to send entries: Address your entries to Contest Editor, Gillett Products, Fraser Avenue, Toronto 2.

agan Valley, and to Great Britain, $2.50 per year. To the United States and other countries, $3.00 per year.
Local rate, for Okanagan Valley only:
One year, $2.00; six months, $1.25.

The COURIER does not necessarily endorse the sentiments of any contributor article.
To ensure acceptance, all manuscripts should be legibly written on one side of the paper only.
Typewritten copy is preferred.
Amateur poetry is not published.
Letters to the editor will not be accepted for publication over a "nom de plume"; the writer's correct name must be appended.

Contributed matter received after Tuesday night may not be published until the following week.

ADVERTISING RATES

Contract advertisers will please note that their contract calls for delivery of all changes of advertisement to the Editor's Office by day night. This rule is in the mutual interests of patrons and publisher, to avoid congestion on Wednesday and Thursday and consequent night work, and to facilitate publication of The Courier on time. Changes of contract advertisements will be accepted on Tuesday as an accommodation to an advertiser confronted with an emergency, but on no account on Wednesday for the following day's issue.
Transient and Contract Advertisements—Rates quoted on application.
Local and Municipal Advertising—First insertion, 15 cents per line, each subsequent insertion, 10 cents per line.
Classified Advertisements—Such as For Sale, Lost, Found, Wanted, etc., under the heading "Want Ads," first insertion, 15 cents per line; each additional insertion, without change of matter, 10 cents per line. Minimum charge of 50 cents. Count five words to line.
Each initial and group of not more than five figures counts as a word.
If so desired, advertisers may have replies addressed to a box number, care of The Courier, and forwarded to their private address, or delivered on call at office. For this service, add 10 cents to cover postage of filing.

THURSDAY, MAY 4th, 1933

PROGRESS MADE WITH B. C. F. G. A. AFFAIRS

to take this action was prompted by recognition of the fact that, unless there is a much greater adherence to the agreement than is indicated at present, the Cartel will not operate this year, and it was realized that, without some agreement among shippers regarding tonnage releases, the 1933 crop will probably bring red ink to the growers.

Internal Competition In British Market

A knotty problem that engaged the close attention of the committee was why, at a time when every effort was being made towards securing unity of action for sales on the domestic market, were many of the shippers, otherwise agreeable to unity, planning to send representatives to the Old Country to undertake fierce competition between B. C. apples on that market. A committee was named to interview the Cartel manager and to point out to him the absurdity of such procedure, as the expense of such trips must be charged against the apple crop in some form. Not only was it pointed out that representatives of the shippers are going to England, but it was stated that agents of British firms had already been in the Okanagan and that the representative of one of the largest shipping agencies had just returned from England.

Members of the committee realized that they did not know the details of the shippers' business and that information on the matter was desirable, in the belief that there must be a proper reason for the course taken by the shippers, which the growers would like to know. To this end, Messrs. Godfrey-Isaacs and Harris were instructed to wait on Major McGuire, Manager of the Cartel, and to point out the situation to him.

Publicity

Owing to lack of notification of the meeting to valley newspapers, Mr.
Child brought up the question of publicity.

Mr. Harris stated that he did not desire to use his position as a member of the provisional reorganization committee of the B.C.F.G.A. to secure exclusive news for his paper, the Vernon News.

With the consent of the other members of the committee, it was then agreed that a report of the meeting then in progress be prepared by Mr. Harris and copies sent to the Kelowna Courier and the Penticton Herald. It was also decided that in future notice of meetings would be sent direct to these newspapers, and they would be free to send representatives. Should they not do so, the Vernon News would not be expected to hand out matter which had cost it money to secure.

CHAMBERLAIN DENIES ANTI-AMERICAN TALES

LONDON, May 4.—Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, while moving a resolution in the House of Commons today to increase the exchange equalization account from £170,000,000 to £250,000,000, declared that the proposed increase "had nothing whatsoever to do with the circumstance that America has gone off gold."

"I am sorry to see, in spite of an emphatic statement in my Budget speech," the Chancellor said, "that some American journals have represented this addition to the exchange equalization account as being in some way directed against the United States.
I do not know whether what I said on that subject was transmitted across the Atlantic together with the statement of intention itself. If not, I regard it as extremely unfortunate that a partial and mutilated account of important statements of this kind should be transmitted and then become the subject of misunderstanding between two great and friendly nations."

The Chancellor's comment evoked cheers.

THE UNIVERSITY BOAT RACE

Salmon Arm, B.C.,
April 25th, 1933.

The Editor,
The Kelowna Courier.

May I call your attention to "Notes and News from Louvon Town," sub-headed, "The University Boat Race," in your issue of Thursday last. Your correspondent's argument is that University rowing is nothing to wonder at,
as crews in the Head of the River race easily beat the time of the University race.

To get a fair comparison, the two races would have had to be rowed on the same conditions. As a fact, the Head of the River race was rowed down stream on the ebb tide, one week before the University race, which was rowed on the flood tide, up stream, and it is generally considered that on the same day, under like conditions of water and wind that the down stream course is some 25 seconds faster than the up stream. Apart from this, the races were rowed on different days and the tides would not have been the same.
The amount of hand water taken in the stream makes an appreciable difference to the current. The direction of the wind is a big factor. The condition of the water, i.e., the degree of roughness, varying all the way from dead calm to water so rough that crews have swamped, is another factor.

What happens when University crews come into direct competition with Head of the River crews at Henley, where all crews are in first-class condition?
Do the Head of the River crews out-class the University crews? They do not. Out of eight events (see Whittaker's 1933 Almanack) the Universities won (last year) 3 and the London and Thames rowing clubs won 3. What is more, Leander, a University crew, won the chief event, the Grand Challenge Cup, and were chosen to represent England at the Olympic Regatta at London. A number of rowing men in and around Kelowna, in fact you are easily the chief centre for rowing in the Interior, and I suggest that it is unfortunate that the article I am commenting on should have appeared in your otherwise excellent paper.

Yours truly,
W. H. SNELL.

(EDITORIAL NOTE.—As we have no knowledge of the facts referred to by Mr. Snell, his letter is being referred to our London correspondent who is experienced journalist who is generally sure of his ground, and we leave it to him to defend or explain his remarks.)

ROWING

Annual Meeting Of Rowing Club Last Night

The Rowing Club held their annual meeting last evening, with about forty-five enthusiastic ladies and men in attendance. A general discussion took place and a lot of business was transacted.

The usual officers were not elected, owing to the fact that the Aquatic Association and the Rowing Club may be amalgamated and be as one body. In place of the regular officers a committee of five were elected from a slate of nine, to carry on for the time being and meet the Aquatic directors for purposes of joining. The following were the committee elected: Miss M. Jenkins, D. Poole, H. Weatherill, M. Oakes and R. Hunt.

After the general meeting the committee had a short meeting and selected a chairman and secretary-treasurer for the time being.

There will be a full report of the meeting in next week's issue of the Courier.

BRONZE AGE HARMONY

Interesting Discoveries Of Swedish Prehistoric Bronze Horns

Musical instruments, dating from the Bronze age, found in Swedish soil, show that the rules of harmony and the different keys of music were known to the Swedes 2,500 B.C. This is the statement of Dr. Nihlen, a Stockholm archaeologist, as reported in an interesting article just published in a Swedish newspaper. In certain localities these beautifully curved bronze horns are found lying together and when examined show that two horns always are mutually harmonized in C, F or G curves, so that the two horns blown by players standing beside each other together formed a rough circle. The archaeologists assume that the horns were used for religious rites as well as during battles. The horn blowers are often pictured in the numerous Bronze Age rock carvings in Sweden, where prehistoric artists tried to illustrate social and religious life in roughly incised human figures.

Dr. Nihlen even assumes that many of the melodious Swedish folk-songs may trace their origin back to the Bronze Age, and adds that the Vikings of later times were known to sing duets.

The horns are ingeniously joined together by means of a quite modern-looking device, so that one part of the horn was put on another and fastened by a bolt on the lower part that was struck through a hole on the upper one.
These horns, joined together in three different sections, like the safety-pins found amongst the Bronze Age remains give evidence of the inventive genius of the Bronze Age people in Sweden.

Among other prehistoric instruments found in the Swedish soil are bronze drums of excellent sound quality and an amber bridge used on a Viking time instrument with four or six strings, most probably the kind of small harp that was so popular during the migratory period of the Teuton tribes.

SUPPORT KELOWNA'S BIG EMPIRE DAY TRACK MEET

ORCHARD RUN

By R. M. R.

A REVIEW OF EVENTS

Beginning with the kazoo, advancing to the jew's harp and graduating to the harmonica, my musical education is fairly complete. There are facetious persons who claim that I am on a par with Paderewski at the piano, but, as a matter of fact, I am not quite as good as Paderewski. Our gymnastic style is similar, but the Polish pianist probably puts more soul in his work.
I depend more on thundering crescen-dos to get the desired effect.

I spent three days at the Musical Festival. Despite many urgent requests to organize a trio or quartette for the vocal execution of such classics as Sweet Adeline, pressure of business forced me to decline. As a result, Art Collingwood is leaving the Okanagan without a comprehensive idea of the vocal talent we have here in the centre of our beautiful and financially wrecked orchards. But I realize that it would hardly be fair to take the prizes from some one who would appreciate them more than myself and miscellaneous colleagues who hold a musical festival in the vicinity of the City Park every Saturday night.

Apologies of this annual three-day event of vocal and instrumental broadcasting at the Scout Hall, I am reminded of a story I once heard concerning a musical festival in a country town. A young girl was competing, and when she returned home her mother asked her how she got along.

"All right," said the girl, "but the adjudicator seemed to be a very religious man."

"Why do you think so?" asked the mother.

"Because all the time I was playing he held his hands over his eyes and kept saying: 'Oh, my God! Oh, my God!'"

Men Are Romantic

Quite a bit of amusement was provided when, while adjudicating one of the classes, Dr. Collingwood declared that, deep down in their hearts, men were more romantic than women. And he is right, although the great driving force behind this column is almost as hard-boiled as the ladies.

Because women give vent to their emotions through the medium of tears more often than men does not signify that they are gifted—or disturbed—with anything savouring of tender romanticism. Woman, from behind her cloak of feminism, can be hard as nails even when she appears soft and yielding. And if you don't believe it, ask the man who owns one.

But what about man? He is the sap that moons in the spring. He builds an impossible ideal and expects a human being to fit into that picture. Woman, wiser, constructs the frame for a picture but she really does not expect any man to fit into it perfectly. She will tell you that she does, but of course she doesn't. She knows her him better than man knows his hers. He lets his imagination soar to dangerous heights, and what goes up must come down. The romantic instincts of woman do not have as far to fall as those of men.

Coming back to our music, we find that all the great composers were men. Their romanticism gave them inspiration for the enduring classics—and, if we can believe what we read, a lot of trouble. The mere male can look upon a beautiful woman and hie away to his attic and make a sonnet out of his dreams. He goes on a romantic spree and realizes a certain spiritual satisfaction. It is really a shame that many of our budding composers get married. With few exceptions, they cannot survive the material.

MEET JIM

To our gallery of the great, we introduce Jim.

Born in that turbulent Oriental land across the Pacific, his illustrious ancestry dates back thousands of years.
And something of the graciousness of that parentage is reflected in Jim, genial proprietor of Kelowna's only night club.

It is not called a night club, but if you get lonesome in the late hours you are almost certain to meet a friend or acquaintance at Jim's, where there is a spirit of comradeship among all classes.

It is the personality of one man, carrying on the traditions of his father, that gives the Oriental establishment an air.

Jim has been in Kelowna for many years. In all that time, he has not seen his wife or family.

He returns in a year or two on a visit. And there will be rejoicing in the Quong household.

The innate honesty of the man attracts we of the western world, who are probably less honest. It is an honesty sometimes imposed upon by the "superior" people who think it a good

PARTISAN AND NON

The political obsequies of Mr. Bowser having been performed with due solemnity by the editor of this paper last week, it leaves us wondering from what source is to come that elusive ray of hope we've been looking for so eagerly. No political saviour has yet appeared to brighten our tax-laden days—or, if one has appeared, I am deaf, dumb and blind.

When big corporations hit the financial rocks they usually appoint a receiver. It might be a good idea for British Columbia to put herself in the hands of a disinterested (politically) party to straighten out the mess. But the problem is to find the disinterested party. Personal glory and gain dominate the picture when an election looms in sight—although the spoils today do not look attractive to me.
Perhaps the reason why the man who picks up the reins of government should be young is attributed to the fact that he will reach old age before there's anything in the treasury to make a personal fight for.

INTRA MUROS

A Chicago man had died and passed into the Great Beyond. A guide was showing him about, but after an hour of sight-seeing the Chicago man, disappointed, remarked rather contemptuously: "Well, I've heard a lot about what heaven would be like but I'm telling you it ain't one bit different from Chicago."

"Heaven?" exclaimed the guide.
"Man alive, this ain't heaven!"

A doctor, an architect and a Bol-shevist were discussing the priority of their occupations.

The doctor said: "When Adam's side was opened and a rib removed, to make woman, there was a surgical operation—medicine was the oldest profession."

The architect said: "Yes, but when the earth was made out of chaos, there was a building process, the use of materials according to the plan. The architect is, therefore, the oldest."

To which the Bolshevik smiled and said: "But who supplied the chaos?"

Mr. Fred Gore, of the Kelowna Fire Brigade, left on Saturday for Vancouver, where he will take a course of instruction in modern fire fighting methods. He will spend two weeks in the Fire Warden's office in addition to a four weeks' course at the Vancouver Fire Department training school.

Arthur H. Evans, the labour agitator and "Red" who spoke at a meeting in Kelowna a few weeks ago, was put on the west-bound train at Penticton on Friday night by a crowd composed of business, professional and labour men and told he would return "at his own peril." He is said to have made no protest and was given a ticket for Vancouver, which he accepted. The evicting party made no effort to conceal their identity.

"Slim" Williams, en route to the World's Fair at Chicago with his famous dog team, is expected to pass through Kelowna at the week-end. Williams, who left Alaska not long ago, has made good time so far on his long mush. He travels mostly at night and rests during the warmest hours of the day. It is not known definitely when he will reach Kelowna, but he may pass through on Saturday or Sunday.

Watchman! What of the night? And also the day? Very few people spend thirty-three years of service in a cabin or tower, but such was the case of an employee of the Canadian National Railways who recently retired at the age of seventy, after being a gatekeeper at a crossing, for that length of time. During that long period no accident occurred at the crossing of which he had charge.

Mr. W. E. "Bill" Lucas, who this year finished his Arts course at the University of British Columbia, has been appointed Principal of the Westbank School, succeeding Mr. F. B. Dickinson. "Bill" arrived home on Friday from Vancouver, and assumed his duties at Westbank on Monday.

Appointed as Imperial Oil agent at Princeton, Mr. Roy Duggan left last week for the Similkameen to take up his duties. Mr. William McDowell, of Vancouver, has been transferred to Kelowna to take the position vacated by Mr. Duggan. Mr. McDowell and child have taken up residence here.

Thursday next is the date set for the Kelowna Hospital Women's Auxiliary annual blossom drive through the orchard districts. Those without transportation should meet at the Royal Anne Hotel at 2:30 p.m. when cars will leave on the afternoon tour. Tea will be served at various homes visited en route.

Three out of ten U.B.C. students interested in athletics were awarded the "Big Block" (U.B.C. letters) this year as Kelownians. Harry Anderson and Harry "Pi" Campbell received the award for the second year in succession, and W. E. "Bill" Lucas was recipient of this honour for the first time. Congratulations, boys!

Mr. J. W. B. Browne, of KCOV, has been definitely advised that the Kelowna radio station will be included in the national chain of stations throughout Canada that will be privileged to handle Dominion-wide broadcasts. This means that programmes of a high order and national in character will be brought to the valley through the medium of KCOV.

The following subscriptions and donations received by the Gordon Campbell Valley Preventorium are gratefully acknowledged: Col. T. A. Ham, $10; Summerland Women's Institute, $5; Diamond Jubilee Chapter, I.O.D.E., Penticton, $10; Summerland Ladies' Hospital Auxiliary, $5. This, added to the sum of $21 previously acknowledged, makes a total to date of $51. The Kelowna Steam-Laundry has donated free laundry for 1933.

Many Kelowna friends mourn the untimely passing of Mr. Harold F. Beattie, cricketer, allround sportsman and talented amateur actor, a resident of Vernon for twenty-five years, who died in the Vernon Jubilee hospital on Friday, April 28th, following a major operation a week earlier. Mr. Beattie, who was only forty-eight years of age, is survived by his wife and a young son. The funeral was held from All Saints' Anglican Church, Vernon, on Monday afternoon.

REMINDER!

Have you sent in an entry yet for the Buy at Home Contest, advertised on page seven of last week's Courier?

For the best reason or reasons given in twenty words why it is good policy to patronize the business places in your home town, a cash prize of $5.00 will be given. Surely that is pretty good pay for a little trouble—twenty-five cents a word, but there has been no frantic rush as yet to grab the money.

The contest closes at noon on Saturday, May 6th, and the results will be given out as soon thereafter as possible.

Remember! To be eligible for the prize all entries must be accompanied by a receipt for goods purchased or work done by one of the business firms that advertised in the issue of The Courier of April 27th, whether on page seven or elsewhere.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Margaret Aitken Johnston

By the passing on Sunday last, April 30th, of Mrs. Margaret Aitken Johnston, Kelowna lost an aged and highly respected resident. Born at Douglas, Lanarkshire, Scotland, on August 4th, 1845, she was in her eighty-eighth year. She came of good Scottish stock, being a grand-niece of the distinguished statesman, the Right Hon. William Ewart Gladstone. She married Mr. John Johnston, Locomotive Inspector for the North British Railway, who predeceased her in 1905, and came to Kelowna in 1912.

Although of a retiring disposition, Mrs. Johnston took an active and kindly interest in the welfare of the community and things in general until a week before her death. She leaves to mourn her passing one son, Mr. John Johnston, of New Westminster, who was with her at the end, and four daughters, Mrs. C. G. Fergusson, of St. Andrews, Scotland, Mrs. Dempster Smith, of Manchester, England, Mrs. David Crawford and Miss Janet Johnston, of Kelowna, and five grandchildren.

The funeral service was conducted at the First United Church on Tuesday, at 2:30 p.m., by Rev. W. W. McPherson, who paid a high tribute to the good life of the departed lady. The pall bearers were Mayors D. K. Gordon, Messrs. Geo. S. McKenzie, J. Galbraith, W. R. Trench, R. Ritchie and J. N. Thompson.

LESSONS ON THE LAWN

Methods Of Renovating Bald Patches

The soothing vista of fresh, green lawns in the shade of leafy avenues is the one great asset of beauty that distinguishes Canadian residential districts from the drab suburban disinterest of towns in less enterprising countries. By the same token, this spring is likely to be a busy one for the Canadian home beautifier. During the past winter, with its comparatively light covering of snow in many sections of the country, ice has played havoc with the lawns and bare patches are gaping here and there.

In this connection, it is interesting to note the restoration methods of a leading Canadian horticulturist, famous also for the lawns around his home. First of all, he rakes the bare spots clean, and, if necessary, adds a modicum of good, healthy soil. He sows the seed, rakes it gently into the mould, rolls it, and takes great care to keep the bald places moist, as indeed he does to the whole of the lawn. The slight raking and the rolling bring the soil and the seed into intimate contact, thereby ensuring rapid germination. By the time the grass is three or four inches high, it will have sufficient root-hold to withstand the operation of a lawnmower in common with the rest of the lawn. For the first cutting of the new grass on the erstwhile spots, the machine is set rather high. The blades should be very sharp and well set to avoid pulling out the young grass. As a rule, however, the lawns of this horticulturist stand the winter well, for the simple reason that in the late fall, October or November, he takes the precaution to spread fertilizer—bone meal or commercial sheep manure—and roll the lawn thoroughly. If necessary, a sprinkling of seed may be opportune, followed by another intensive rolling.

For the renovation of old, worn out lawns, the use of a good fertilizer is imperative, and as regards seed, the usual grass mixture sold by leading seed firms is generally satisfactory. A very good mixture for Canada, however, may be made of Kentucky Blue Grass and White Dutch Clover at the rate of 35 pounds of the former to one pound of the latter. In making a new lawn this is enough to cover half an acre, but for small lawns one ounce of this mixture is sufficient for three and a half square yards.

As a lawn is more or less a permanent factor, everything depends on the initial foundation. To make a fine lawn it is important that the soil is of a good class, enriched with well rotted yard manure. If this is not available, there are many effective commercial fertilizers recommended by seedmen, but a very satisfactory mixture may be made up of nitrate of soda, one half pound; sulphate of potash, one half pound; and itors between the ages of 17 and 23 years. He won in the pianoforte open class and, captured the Grote Stirling Salver for the instrumental solo championship of the valley with the high mark of 178. The adjudicator declared that the performer would have taken a high place in any festival. If there were teachers in Kelowna who could produce such players, said Dr. Collingwood, then some fine work should be evidenced in the future. Adding further laurels to his crown, Billie Shugr, playing with John Chaidge, won the pianoforte duet competition.

The Spencer Cup competition for the vocal championship of the valley was won for the second year in succession by Mr. W. J. Cook, of Kelowna, who competed with Mrs. Thomas Daly, of Penticton. He was awarded 88 marks. High Praise for Kelowna Songsters.

Other highlights of the Festival included the excellent showing made by the Kelowna Public School Choir, conducted by Miss Audrey MacLeod, which won the Penticton Knights of Pythias Shield with the high mark of 178. The adjudicator stated that this choir would have been accorded a good place in any festival. The performance was one of the best he had ever heard, and the teacher was a credit to her school.

The boys' solo class, in which Anthony Agar, of Kelowna, won with 89 marks, was declared the best class the adjudicator had ever heard in Canada. With Barbara Tut, also of Kelowna, Tony won the Bradley Cup for highest marks in the juvenile vocal classes. Each will hold the cup for a period of six months.

The Summerland Operatic Society Shield was won by the Penticton United Church Choir, conducted by Mr. B. C. Bracewell, which competed with St. Michael & All Angels' Choir, Rev. C. E. Davis, conductor. Mrs. G. D. Cameron's Ladies' Choir captured the MacDonald Cup in competition with the Penticton Ladies' Choir, the adjudicator complimenting the Kelowna choir on its high competency.

In the vocal solo class open to amateurs and professionals, Miss Helen Ellis, of Kamloops, gave a creditable performance, and in one of the school choirs classes the Kelowna Junior High School Choir, conducted by Mr. F. T. Marriage, established a high record, standard to win the Hayes Cup for that particular class. Marks were 177.

Meritorious Showing In Elocution, Dancng And Drama

The elocution, folk dancing and dramatic classes produced some excellent material this year. Little Miss Jean McDougall, of Kelowna, winner of the Waring Gills Cup for highest marks in the juvenile elocution classes, was heard to advantage in these classes, and the Kelowna Elocution Class, of which Mrs. C. S. Chambers, Rutland, is teacher, made a fine impression in dramatic work to win the Hon. J. W. Jones trophy and the Penticton Women's Institute Shield. A feature of the folk dancing was the excellent work of the Kelowna Guides and Brownies.

Miss M. M. Coughrough, teacher, who staged a Dutch dance to win the Kennedy Shield. Special mention should also be made of the 2nd Kelowna Guide Company, which, with 13-year-old Dorothy Wyatt as teacher, was awarded the Norman Day Confederation Life Shield for a good interpretation of the "Sailor's Horn Pipe." The adjudicator complimented the young teacher (herself taught by Miss Dean, of Vernon) on training her class wonderfully well.

Eutin Family Maintains Traditions
It is notable that the Weaver Cup, presented for the highest marks in juvenile pianoforte classes, of which Mrs. Eutin family at Rutland for the third year in succession, Enid Eutin winning it this year.

The Vernon Kinsmen Club Challenge Cup and a medal for highest marks in the senior violin classes was awarded to Miss Barbara Emslie, of Kelowna, winner in the open class. The Empress Theatre Challenge Cup and medal for highest marks in the junior violin classes was won by Doreen Christensen, of Vernon, but, unfortunately, the cup was destroyed during the year. It is hoped to replace it in the near future.

The Kelowna Gyro Shield for the highest marks in the juvenile choir classes was awarded to Miss MacLeod's Kelowna Public School Choir, while the Kelowna Board of Trade Challenge Cup for the highest marks in the ladies' and mixed choir classes went to Mrs. G. D. Cameron's Ladies' Choir.

The Final Concert
While all afternoon and evening sessions were well attended, the largest crowd packed the hall on Saturday evening for the final concert, which opened with selections by the Vernon High and Public Schools Orchestra under the direction of Miss Elaine Jamieson.

Holders of the Penticton Cup, they had no competition, a fact lamented by Dr. Collingwood, who would like to see more of these orchestras. In the realm of school orchestras, he said that America led the world, and he was confident that Kelowna would enter one next year. Congratulating the Vernon band and Miss Jamieson, he awarded 87 marks for their rendition of "William Tell Overture."

Lawson's Kelowna Public School choir were next seen in the number which won for them the J. W. Jones Cup (the first cup to be presented by Mr. Jones). As it was implied, "Hippety-Hoppety-Rabbit," it was a delightfully little musical sketch featuring costume, supported by the choir. Incidentally, the tune was written by Mr. F. T. Marriage.

Miss Coughrough's folk dancing class followed with eight girls in a rhythmic and colourful dance reminiscent of the Netherlands. There was a noticeable lack of restraint and pride of effort in the work of the dancers. Miss Cook, brought was presented with a bouquet by one of her class.

The "Sailor's Horn Pipe," staged by Dorothy Wyatt's class, was peppy presented, the girls wearing sailor's costumes. Floral presentations were made to Miss Wyatt and Miss Mildred Lloyd-Jones, the pianist.

Two numbers by Miss MacLeod's Kelowna Public School choir were very much enjoyed by the audience. The test pieces, which were repeated, were "Will you buy any tape?" (Nunn) and Schubert's "To Music." Miss MacLeod was presented with a bouquet by one of the choir.

Little Enid Eutin, winner of the Weaver Cup, was next heard at the piano in "Rondino," the test piece by Beckett Williams.

"If I had but two little wings" and "Sing-Song" were the titles of two appealing recitations by Jean McDougall, who made quite a hit with the audience.

Barbara Tut's delightful young voice was heard in "Flowers are closed and lambs are sleeping" (Terry). She was followed by Anthony Agar, who sang "The Fiddler of Dooney" (Milford) in splendid voice.

Helen Nighswander, of Penticton, winner of the Vernon United Church Cup for the highest marks in senior pianoforte classes, rendered Schumann's "Soaring" in an entertaining manner.

The Kelowna Young Players, directed by Mrs. T. G. S. Chambers, were the only entrants in the dramatic class, open. Evidencing a good brand of histrionic talent in "The Rivals" (Sheridan), part of act 1, scene 2, they won 85 marks and the compliments of the adjudicator for a fine presentation of this eighteenth century costume play. The cast included Misses Erica and Patricia Willis, Margaret Aitken, Mary Flinders and Peggy Carey. This is a new class this year, and the Kelowna Young Players were awarded the cup presented by Hon. J. W. Jones. At the conclusion of the performance, a floral presentation was made to Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. West by members of the cast.

Tremendous applause greeted St. Michael & All Angels' Boys' Choir, which, while it did not compete this year, entertained at the final concert with two selections, "Evensong" and "Spring's Awakening," with Guy Fisher as soloist.

Following the presentation of challenge trophies and special prizes by Mrs. West, the Spencer Cup competition for the vocal championship of the valley was announced. Mrs. Thomas Daly, of Penticton, the first competitor, sang "Joan of Arc's Farewell" (Tschalkowsky), followed by Mr. W. J. Cook, who chose Mendelssohn's "It is enough," from Elijah, as his test piece. Dr. Collingwood's comment was that both were vocalists of high quality. Mr. Cook, he said, gave the song a dignified treatment—there was a capital climax and admirable diction. He awarded Mr. Cook 88 marks. Mrs. Daly, 86.

Mrs. G. D. Cameron's Ladies' Choir, augmented by the Rutland Ladies' Choir, of which she is also conductor, gave renditions of "The flight of the swallows" (Gibbs) and "Sweet Content" (Armstrong), both of which earned much applause.

Selections by the Kelowna Concert Orchestra, which is making rapid strides in the right direction, brought to a fitting close the eighth annual Musical Festival.

Civic Welcome

In the absence of Mayor D. K. Gordon, Ald. W. R. Trench extended the civic welcome to visitors on Friday evening. In a brief address, he expressed his pleasure at welcoming Dr. Collingwood back to Kelowna, and congratulated the Festival Committee on the good work it was doing. He wished the Festival every success and hoped that there would be a larger entry next year.

Chairman Campbell On Finances

Mr. C. E. Campbell, chairman of the executive committee, addressing the large audience on Saturday evening, remarked that conducting the affairs of the Festival in these times brought moments of anxiety. Penticton was giving good support to the Festival as in the past, but Vernon had fallen away to a great extent. A year ago the Festival Committee finished with a deficit, and last year a new association was formed in which any one could become a member on payment of a fee of fifty cents. This membership entitled members to purchase season tickets at a reduction of twenty-five per cent. The response was fairly good, the paid-up membership now being 152. Through the generosity of the members, who took advertising space, the programme and syllabus were self-supporting. The attendance this year had not been up to that of previous years, although it was fairly satisfactory.

Mr. Campbell was hopeful that they would finish on the right side of the ledger this year, but they would be unable to reduce the deficit. If five hundred new members could be obtained, it would help considerably. Stressing the value of the Festival, he stated that Miss Isobel Murray and Miss Phyllis Cook were products of the earlier Festivals and that the Kelowna Concert Orchestra was making a satisfactory growth through the encouragement it received.

RHIZOCTONIA DISEASE OF POTATOES

(Experimental Farms Note)

The Rhizoctonia, or black scurf disease of potatoes is caused by the fungus Rhizoctonia solani, which may lead a parasitic or saprophytic life. As a saprophyte it feeds on dead organic matter in most soils, overwintering as small black bodies called sclerotia, which soon germinate under favourable moisture and temperature conditions. These sclerotia may be found free in the soil, on old potato stalks and roots or on the tubers.

The disease causes big losses in the potato crops of British Columbia, particularly in the older potato growing districts where a systematic crop rotation is not practised. The percentage of unmarketable tubers from diseased plants is generally very high.

The importance of crop rotation, in the control cannot be over-emphasized. Planting of potatoes in the same soil year after year tends to increase the amount of Rhizoctonia. Experiments have been conducted at the Laboratory of Plant Pathology, Saanichton, to determine the effect of growing different cover crops before planting potatoes. Crimson clover, alfalfa, sweet clover, vetch, wheat, barley and rape were sown. After several months' growth these were turned under and mixed with the soil already infected with the Rhizoctonia fungus. The results from preliminary experiments showed that the potatoes produced after barley were cleaner and more true to type than those grown after the other crops. The potato plants after the legumes, however, made the best growth, and those after barley made the poorest growth of any.

Comparisons made to date of the resistance of different varieties grown under similar conditions showed that the Early Ohio is more resistant than the Irish Cobbler in the early varieties.

Planting of potato sets when growth conditions are favourable for rapid germination is imperative to overcome early infection. When the soil is wet and cold after planting, the organism gets more time to attack the young succulent shoots as they emerge. In irrigated sections, too much surface irrigation should be avoided during the early growth stages, since the organism thrives under moist conditions.

The standard method of dipping seed potatoes in corrosive sublimate is recommended. By this method the sclerotia on the tubers are killed, but the treatment is not always effective as a control measure when the fungus is found abundantly in the soil. Owing to this, particular emphasis is laid on good crop rotation and cultural practices as outlined above.

WALTER JONES,

Dominion Laboratory of Plant Pathology, Saanichton, B. C.

PLAYING SECOND FIDDLE

Young students of musical instruments would be wise to remember a saying of Schumann's: "If everyone played first violin, no orchestra would be got together." The less prominent instruments are just as useful as those in the limelight. To excel, nowadays, as a performer on the more popular instruments—the piano and violin—means exceptional gifts and a vast amount of work. The high standard which used to be reached by only a few now is reached by many for the simple reason that ever so many more than used to study those instruments now do so. There is far more room at the top for players of other instruments, and if the student would give his thoughts to the viola, or the cello among the stringed instruments, or to one of the various woodwind or brass instruments, he would be more likely to command a prominent place.

Barter is being tried in the large cities of Spain.

Elocution, young students, 19 years and under. Two entries. "A fine night in winter" (Lynd) and excerpt from "The Tempest" (Shakespeare). 1st, Elsie Granger, Rutland, 163; 2nd, Roxie Wilson, Penticton, 160. "Very well done on the whole. Excellent feeling for lyric poetry."

Pianoforte, 14 years and under. Six entries. "Bagatelle" in E flat major (Beethoven) and "Song without words" (Mendelssohn). Eileen Tickell, Kelowna, and Mary Louise Nighswander, Penticton, tied with 167 marks each.

Girls' solo, 12 years and under. Ten entries. "Slumber Song" (Quilter). 1st, Yvonne Baldwin, Okanagan Mission, 83; 2nd, Leila Tavendale, Penticton, 82; 3rd, Betty Nighswander, Penticton, 81. "A natural, easy singer in the making."

Pianoforte, 19 years and under. Two entries. "Sarabande" (Ricordi-Pick-Mangiagalli) and "Soaring" (Schumann). 1st, Helen Nighswander, Penticton, 168; 2nd, Margaret Tavender, Summerland, 161. "Buoyant, dancing rhythm."

Instrumental Solo Championship of the Valley, for the Grote Stirling Salver. One entry, piano. Test piece own selection. Billie Shugg, Kelowna, 178 marks. "A player worth listening to; in any festival he would have taken a high place. Combines musicianship and modesty."

Violin duet, 18 years and under. One entry. "Six Little Duets" (Pleyel). Bonar Sutherland and Jean Beason, Summerland, 161. "Creditable performance, but need smartening up and contrast."

Vocal solo, baritone, open. One entry. "Now Phoebe Sinketh in the West" (Arne) and "Away to Rio" (Thimian). Cyril Mossop, Summerland, 171. "Has a thoroughly musical feeling, but almost too respectable in first song."

Elocution, girls, 16 years and under. Five entries. "Indian Summer" (Campbell) and excerpt from "Pygmalion and Galatea" (Gilbert). 1st, Janet Craig, Kelowna, 166; 2nd, Gloria Eutin, Rutland, 164. "High standard."

Dramatic class, students 19 years and under. One entry. Kelowna Elocution Class (Mrs. T. G. S. Chambers, teacher) appeared in a highly dramatic number entitled "The Shot," written by Alexander Pushkin. The players were Becky Gore, Margaret Aitken, Erica Willis and Joan Adams, all of whom appeared to advantage in the Russian play. The adjudicator said that, while it was difficult for girls to attempt, they came off with flying colours and she would congratulate them. They retained the shield donated by the Penticton Women's Institute with 86 marks.

The Penticton Orchestral Society, conducted by Mr. H. K. Whimster, opened the Friday evening performance with one or two selections, after which the open competition between this orchestra and the Kelowna Concert Orchestra was staged. While the Penticton aggregation again retained the Bracewell Shield by the narrow margin of two points, the smaller band, lacking in wind instruments, gave a fine performance. The adjudicator stated that the conductor made the most of a very competent little band, but wind instruments were needed.

Orchestra, open. Two entries. "Raymond" (Thomas-Roberts). 1st, Penticton Orchestral Society, 89; 2nd, Kelowna Concert Orchestra, 87.

Pianoforte, open to all, amateur and professional. Two entries. Presto (from Sonata Op. 10, No. 3 by Beethoven) and "Voiles" (Debussy). 1st, Cyril Mossop, Summerland, 172 (retains trophy won last year); 2nd, Wallace Meikle, Penticton, 161. "Spirited style; imagination and poetic insight."

Elocution, ladies, open. Seven entries. "The House that Was" (Binyon) and excerpt from "King John" (Shakespeare). 1st, Patricia Willis, Kelowna, 168; 2nd, Mary Erica Willis, 165. "Two very good performances indeed."

Mixed choirs, open. Two entries. "While the bright sun" (Byrd) and "God be merciful to us and bless us" (Collingwood). 1st, Penticton United Church Choir, Mr. B. C. Bracewell, conductor, 166; 2nd, St. Michael & All Angels' Church Choir, Kelowna, Rev. C. E. Davis, conductor, 165. Penticton won the Summerland Operatic Society Shield, held last year by the Kelowna choir. Dr. Collingwood declared that a creditable competency was shown. He conducted the two choirs combined at the end of the competition.

Instrumental trio (violin, cello and piano) open. One entry. Trio in D minor (Bach). Mrs. Lewis Smith,

NEW MAGIC BAKING POWDER CAKE CONTEST

Another $1,000 Offered in Prizes—Principal Winners in March Contest

The judging of another Magic Mystery Cake Contest has been completed and a few days ago cheques totalling one thousand dollars were mailed by the makers of Magic Baking Powder to the lucky contestants whose suggestions of a name for the March Magic Mystery Cake, originated by Miss Lillian Loughton, found final favour with the judging committee.

"Mosaic Loaf Cake," the name submitted by Mrs. Wm. Hamer, of Drumbo, Ontario, won the first prize of $250; second prize of $100 was awarded to Mrs. A. D. Davis, Sherbrooke, P.Q., while Mrs. O. V. Thada, Hawarden, Sask., was the winner of the third prize of $50. Sixty additional prizes of $10 each were sent to other successful contestants in various parts of the Dominion, with every province having a generous representation in the list of prize-winners.

Entries in the April Magic Mystery Cake Contest are now being judged. Meanwhile, on page three of this week's Courier the announcement of the fifth Magic Mystery Cake recipe appears, together with full details of the contest. This month's cake sounds very appetizing and no doubt Kelowna will have its fair share of entries in this widely discussed contest sponsored by the makers of Magic Baking Powder. The contest is open to every one, it costs nothing to enter, and the prizes totalling $1,000 are well worth winning in these times.

Turn to page three now and read the recipe contest rules. Yours may be the lucky entry to win the $250 first prize or one of the other sixty-two cash prizes offered for naming the May Magic Mystery Cake.

Rural and Small Schools Choirs. One entry. "Lullaby" (Schubert), ed. Bairdston and "Linden Lea" (Williams). Coldstream Public School, Miss H. L. Cryderman, conductor, 167. They retained the DeBeek Cup.

Junior Choirs, 18 years and under. One entry. Competing for the North Okanagan Women's Institute Shield. "I know a bank" (Shaw) and "I have twelve oxen" (Thimian). Rutland Community Choir, Miss L. McDiarmid, conductor, 170.

Girls' solo, 15 years and under. Fourteen entries. "Flowers are closed and lambs are sleeping" (Terry). 1st, Barbara Tutt, Kelowna, 89; 2nd, Lauretta McClroy, Kelowna, and Bunny Finch, Penticton, 87; 3rd, Janet Craig, Kelowna, 86. "Best vocal standards up to date; evidence of sound teaching."

School Choirs, grades 5 and 6. Two entries. "Will you buy any tape?" (Nunn) and "To Music" (Schubert). 1st, Kelowna Public School, Miss Audrey MacLeod, conductor, 178; 2nd, Penticton Elementary Public School, Mrs. Daly, conductor, 170. Miss MacLeod's choir, winning the Penticton Knights of Pythias Shield in this class (a new class this year), received high praise. The performance was one of the best the adjudicator had heard, and both choirs would have been accorded a good place in any festival.

Boys' solo, treble voice. Seven entries. "The Fiddler of Dooney" (Milford). 1st, Anthony Agar, Kelowna, 89; 2nd, Harold Sanger, Kelowna, 87. "The best boys' class I have struck in Canada."

Girls' choir, open. Two entries. Competing for the Kelly Cup. "Urula Dancing" (Boyce) and "See how the morning smiles" (Ireland). 1st, St. Michael & All Angels' Girls' Choir, Rev. C. E. Davis, conductor, 164; 2nd, Summerland High School Girls' Choir, Mr. G. W. Weaver, conductor, 161. The Kelowna choir retains the Kelly Cup.

Boys' Choir, open. One entry. "Good people all" (Handel) and "The Fiddler of Dooney" (Milford). Penticton School Boys' Choir, Mrs. Daly, conductor, was awarded the shield donated this year by St. Michael & All Angels' choir with 161 marks. (The Kelowna choir won the Kelowna Parent-Teacher Shield seven times in succession and decided to keep it.)

School Choirs, grades 7 and 8. Two entries. Competing for Hayes Cup. "Clouds o'er the summer sky" (Holst) and "The Vagabond" (Dunhill). 1st, Kelowna Junior High School, Mr. F. T. Marriage, conductor, 177; 2nd, Penticton Junior High School, Mr. Thos. Daly, 171. "Nicely moulded phrase, vital tone; vowel definition excellent. High standard."

FATAL BLAST IN LONDON SUBURB

The devastation wrought by air raids during the world war was recalled by an explosion in a synthetic chemical factory in a Surrey suburb of London, England. One person was killed in the blast, and twenty or more were seriously injured. The photograph gives a general view of the devastated area, showing wrecked houses and everything covered with debris.

GIRDERS OF ILL-FATED "AKRON" DRAWN FROM OCEAN

A scene on the deck of the U.S. salvage ship "Falcon" as members of her crew drew up bent girders of the ill-fated dirigible "Akron" from the ocean bed upon which they had reposed since the fatal night when the great airship was dashed to destruction in the waves. The entire control car of the Akron was recovered in addition to the girders.

POPE PIUS OBSERVES HOLY HOUR

Pope Pius as he observed a "Holy Hour" of meditation and prayer in St. Peter's Basilica in commemoration of Christ's hour of agony in the Garden of Gethsemane 1900 years ago. The Pontiff is seen kneeling in silence surrounded by the full Pontifical Court, the Sacred College of Cardinals and members of the diplomatic corps accredited to the Vatican.

OBSCURE ATHLETE WINS BOSTON MARATHON

Bucking a brisk and biting wind all the way, Leslie Pawson, 28-year-old millhand, of Pawtucket, R.I., an unknown quantity in the athletic world, out-raced the strongest of his 221 rivals by almost a mile to triumph in the famous Boston Marathon in the record-smashing time of 2 hours, 31 minutes, 13-5th seconds. A crowd of fifteen thousand people witnessed the finish of the run, in which Dave Komen, Toronto Finn, came home second, followed by two other Canadian runners. The photograph shows Pawson being crowned with a laurel wreath by George Demeter, of the Greek American Association, after the race.

The United States navy blimp J-3 is seen sinking off Beach Haven, N.J., after it crashed while searching for survivors of the disaster to the dirigible Akron. An aeroplane seeking to give aid is flying nearby. There were two fatalities, five of the seven members of the crew of the airship being rescued. This picture was taken from the air.

DEPORTEES WOULD FAIR RETURN TO CANADA.

A pleading letter written from Carlisle, England, by Francis Bullman (inset, left), deported with his wife from his $6,000 hundred-acre farm in East Kent, Ont., and his home in Chatham, still fully furnished, recites how his enforced exile from Canada is gradually pauperizing him in England. Futile endeavours carried even to the foot of the throne were disclosed by the son, Albert (inset, right), employed in the hardware and radio business in Ridgeway, Ont. The farm buildings are gradually falling into dilapidation because of neglect in the absence of the owners. In the centre is shown the home of the couple at 122 West St., Chatham, Ont., as they left it for a trip to Saginaw, Michigan, which ended in their deportation to England.

EMPIRE DAY

Galaxy Of Brilliant Coast Talent To Compete

The Gyro Club have been working hard for the past two weeks and have lined up a great day for the citizens of Kelowna and district on May 24th, Empire Day.

In the morning there will be a Pet Parade, a football game between Penitence and Kelowna, as well as many preliminaries in the track and field events.

In the afternoon there will be a tug-of-war and the very finest track and field stars in B. C. will do their part to make it a real day of sport. The programme will wind up with a baseball game between Vernon and Kelowna.

The committee have secured a fine galaxy of material from the Coast to take part in the various events. Following are a few of the runners that will be seen in action:

Stan Barrett, B. C. junior champion and sensational 100 yard and 220 yard runner. Jim Matthews, who has been showing such form recently that the Province prophesied he would soon equal the record set by Percy Williams himself in 1928. Hal Odium, Vancouver's best 440 and 880 yard man. You will all remember seeing him in action at the 1931 and 1932 here at Kelowna. Jack Fraser is Odium's running mate in the last mentioned events. The miler, is George Caird; you will remember him from last year. This will probably be his last appearance on a Canadian track, as he returns shortly to his home in the Old Land. He is an outstanding runner and in excellent form. He has many Canadian and Old Country victories to his credit. Earl McComber is a hurdler, pole vaulter and high jumper; he was here last year. Every effort is being made to secure Duncan McNaughton, the high jumper of 1932 Olympic fame, as well as Dave Garbutt, our own Kelowna miler.

Many of the local athletes such as A. Poole, J. Lynes, A. Reed, W. Cross and many others are training regularly and will be in excellent shape to uphold the honour of the Orchard City. More details will be published in next week's issue. Watch Kelowna on May 24th. It is going to be a real day.

THE RIFLE

High Scoring For So Early In The Season

Sunday was an ideal day for target shooting, with a slightly overcast sky, uniform light and lack of wind, and some of the riflemen made the most of the favourable conditions at the weekly practice on the Glenmore rifle range. In order to speed up the shooting, Captain Kennedy introduced the innovation of commencing at the longest distance and moving up towards the targets, a practice followed occasionally late in the year when the light is not so good. The change had the effect of completing the firing by noon, which was satisfactory to nearly every one. The only difficulty imposed by beginning at 600 yards is that of obtaining the proper elevation if a strange rifle is used, but that can be overcome by keeping a record for the various rifles.

G. C. Rose and J. Martin led at 600 yards with 31 each. Rose improved his performance by opening at 500 with a bull for a sighter, which he followed with two more bulls, an inner and a string of four bulls for 34. Again at the 200, he opened with a bull for a sighter, but he suffered a hard rap on the nose from his rear sight which caused that organ to bleed profusely and, with blood dripping on his rifle and sight, he had to continue under difficulties which dropped him to a six o'clock magpie for his last shot on score and a total of 29, or 94 for the three distances. Martin, who shot very steadily, ran up 31 at 500 and 28 at 200, giving him second place in the aggregate with 90.

Roy Haug got a bad start at 600 with 24, but ran up a nice 32 at 500 and looked like improving that figure at 200, with three bulls, an inner and two bulls on score, but an unfortunate magpie for last shot cut him down to the same total as at 500, giving him an aggregate of 88. Tied with him at the same aggregate total was Captain Kennedy, who shot very steadily but with a sprinkling of unwellcome magpies. Others who totalled over the 80 mark were: J. Conway, 86; E. L. Adam, 82, and J. Calder, 81.

Detailed scores (200, 500, 600 yards and total): G. C. Rose, 29, 34, 31—94; J. Martin, 28, 31, 31—90; G. N. Kennedy, 30, 29, 29—88; R. Haug, 32, 32, 24—88; J. R. Conway, 28, 29, 31—88; E. L. Adam, 29, 28, 31—88; J. Calder, 28, 28, 24—80; H. McCall, 26, 27, 24—77; P. Paul, 24, 27, 23—74; W. Harvey, 9, 28, 26—63; D. McMillan, 23, 24, 12—59.

Shot at 500 and 600 yards only: P. J. Noonan, 26, 16—42.

Shot at 200 and 500 yards only: C. Hawes, 27, 28—55.

Shot at 200 and 600 yards only: P. Smith, 20, 21—41.

Dates Set For Competitions

The Committee of the Rifle Association has decided to hold the shoot for the Kennedy Cup considerably earlier this year than last, the date being set for Sunday, May 21st. The conditions call for a sighter and ten shots on score at 200 yards, Lee-Enfield rifles only. The Cup was won last year by E. L. Adam, who tied with G. N. Kennedy and C. Rose and won the shoot-off with Rose, Kennedy, as donor of the trophy, resigning.

The dates for the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association medal aggregate have been fixed for June 11th, June 12th and Friday evenings, the same as last year, and will have the use of the south diamond. All games are to commence not later than 6.30. Four teams comprise the league, which is made up of High School, Jokers, Junior High School and Hot-Chas.

Following is the league schedule in which each team plays each other twice, the first named team being the home team.

May 9—Jokers vs. High School.
May 12—Hot-Chas vs. Junior High.
May 16—High School vs. Junior High.

May 19—Jokers vs. Hot-Chas.
May 23—Jokers vs. High School.
May 26—High School vs. Hot-Chas.
May 30—High School vs. Jokers.
June 2—Junior High vs. Hot-Chas.
June 6—Junior High vs. High School.

June 9—Hot-Chas vs. Jokers.
June 13—Jokers vs. Junior High.
June 16—Hot-Chas vs. High School.
All players are requested to be on the field by 6.15 on their nights of play.

LAWN TENNIS

Keen Interest Being Evincing In Game This Year

The Kelowna Lawn Tennis Club is holding its official opening this afternoon, and a large number of visitors is expected.

Interest in the game is very marked this year, especially among the younger players, and the membership promises to be considerably larger than was anticipated. A new departure in the formation of a junior committee to further the interests of the younger players is expected to prove popular. The members of this committee are Margaret Aitken, Mary Barton, Bob Hayman and Maurice Melkie.

The Match Committee is starting a ladies' singles ladder competition, and on May 24th it is proposed to hold a mixed doubles American tournament.

Entry Of Two More Teams Necessitates New Schedule

Since last week's issue, which contained the Men's League schedule, two more teams have entered which are the Abbott Street "Amblers" and the Basketball Boys. The captains of these teams are Henry Hill, for the Abbotts, and Max Oakes, for the latter.

With the addition of these two teams, a complete new schedule has had to be arranged, which cancels the one printed last week.

Following is the new schedule.
May 2—Gyros vs. Ford; Northerners vs. Glenmore.

May 5—Toc H vs. High School; Abbott St. Amblers vs. Knights of Columbus.

May 9—Basketball Boys vs. Catholics; Ford vs. Northerners.

May 12—Glenmore vs. Abbott St. Amblers; Toc H vs. Knights of Columbus.

May 16—Gyros vs. Catholics; High School vs. Basketball Boys.

May 19—Abbott St. Amblers vs. Toc H; Gyros vs. Glenmore.

May 26—Northerners vs. High School; Knights of Columbus vs. Basketball Boys.

May 30—Ford vs. Catholics; Northerners vs. Toc H; Northerners vs. Abbott St. Amblers.

June 2—Gyros vs. Abbott St. Amblers; Toc H vs. High School.

June 6—Knights of Columbus vs. Catholics; Ford vs. Basketball Boys.

June 9—Gyros vs. Toc H; Northerners vs. Abbott St. Amblers.

June 13—High School vs. Catholics; Ford vs. Knights of Columbus.

June 23—Gyros vs. Knights of Columbus; Ford vs. Glenmore.

June 27—Gyros vs. Northerners; Toc H vs. Catholics; Glenmore vs. Knights of Columbus.

June 30—Ford vs. High School; Abbott St. Amblers vs. Basketball Boys; Glenmore vs. Catholics.

July 7—Gyros vs. High School; Northerners vs. Knights of Columbus; Ford vs. Toc H.

July 11—Abbott St. Amblers vs. Catholics; Gyros vs. Basketball Boys; High School vs. Knights of Columbus.

Special note concerning the infield fly rule is the same as baseball, viz., with a man on first base and second base the batter is out, also don't forget that the third strike must be caught.

The season opened on Tuesday evening with four teams in action. The Ford team were too good for the Gyros and won easily by 18-0 score. Taggart, the mound for the motor boys, was in good shape, and he was well supported by his fielders.

In the other game, Glenmore and Northerners hooked up in a real battle, which was nip and tuck all the way, the country boys winning out in the last inning, when they scored several runs. The final score was 11-9.

The Girls' League gets into action on May 9th. They will play on Tuesday and Friday evenings, the same as the boys, and will have the use of the south diamond. All games are to commence not later than 6.30. Four teams comprise the league, which is made up of High School, Jokers, Junior High School and Hot-Chas.

Following is the league schedule in which each team plays each other twice, the first named team being the home team.

May 12—Hot-Chas vs. Junior High.

Central Okanagan League Organizes

The annual meeting of the Central Okanagan Baseball League took place on Tuesday evening at Gray's packing house at Rutland, at which representatives from Oyama, Winfield, Rutland and Kelowna were in attendance. The President, A. W. Gray, of Rutland, occupied the chair.

A general discussion took place on several important matters, amongst which was the prospect of the number of teams which would make up the league. Definite assurance was given that there would be at least four teams and the possibility of a fifth. The four teams entered are Rutland, Winfield, Oyama, and one from Kelowna, the Catholics. There is quite a likelihood that there will be another team from Kelowna.

Election of officers resulted in the following being chosen to guide the organization's activities for 1933. All were elected much against their wishes, but no one else would take the offices. President, A. W. Gray, re-elected for the umpteenth time; Vice-President, G. C. Griffith, Oyama; Secretary-Treasurer, Roy Hunt, Kelowna.

It is hoped to start the season next week, and a schedule will be drawn up this week-end and published in next week's issue of the Courier.

Spring

Spring, Oxford Groups and Empire Day celebrations. These will occupy the space this week.

Never have we seen Vancouver look so pretty as it has in the lovely sunshine of the past two weeks. There is no denying that Vancouver is a marvellous city in the sunshine. Gardens are being dug up, lawns trimmed, and spring flowers splash the landscape in beautiful array. One thing very noticeable is that, if Vancouver owes much of its beauty to its gardens, then it is the wives and not the husbands who should have the credit. Perhaps it is because it is a change from the boredom of inside household duties, but whatever the cause, it is almost invariably the housewife who is seen digging and planting. On Saturdays or in the evening "bad" cuts the lawn. Perhaps it is because it is the women who do most of it, that it is done so well.

Harold Johnston

We had the pleasure of meeting Harold Johnston this week. He is now manager of a very nice Safeway Store on 41st Ave., in Kerrisdale. This is about the finest locality in Vancouver and Harold is lucky. His store is very attractive, and he seems to be ready to enjoy the Coast.

Oxford Group Movement

We still hear echoes of the Oxford Group Movement. That it has had a marked effect upon some there is no denying. It has made a deep impression at University and Union College and the Anglican Theological College. We have met several business men who have been profoundly impressed with it, not in the mass meetings but in the individual work. It appears that they narrow it down from the mass to the group, from the group to a few individuals and from that to you. One curious reaction has been the amount of conscience money that has been turned into institutions. One large church with a swimming pool received an eight page letter the other day from a man, who twenty years before with a friend, upon the pretence that he was to take out a season ticket, had obtained a swim and slipped out without paying. This was before the war. He enclosed thirty cents to pay for the swim and interest. There is a very definite opinion among the clergy regarding the methods of the movement. Is it because their methods are not orthodox? Or is it because they feel it is a passing phase?

Empire Day Celebration

Congratulations to the Gyro Club for taking hold of the Empire Day celebration. It would have been too bad if, after years of work reviving this, Kelowna's Day, it was allowed to drift back or lapse. However, with the energy and initiative of the Gyros, one can be assured that it will whirl to some purpose.

Kelowna this year has been unusually lucky in securing the athletes who will visit the beautiful city by the lake. Other cities much larger than Kelowna have been in the field for a long time trying to make a "scoop," but, although nothing definite was known, word was long ago sent around to hold back pending definite word, with the result that this year will see without doubt the finest lot of athletes participate on May 24th that has ever invaded the Interior. Kelowna has secured the very cream of track talent in the province for this event. Hal Wright, Olympic star, is a probable starter. It depends largely upon whether or not he can get work, but he is anxious to come. He is a very attractive fellow, and has requests for his presence at two other big meets, one being in Edmonton, his home town, on the same day. But when we think of those who are making the trip for certain, thrills go running up and down our spine, as we picture these races and finishes. Just think of the 100 and 220 yards. There is Vince Forbes, always a great contender, and then there is Stan Barrett, B.C. junior champion, a rare kid who has the speed of a deer. He earned flaring headlines at the Junior Olympics last summer. By his side will be his rival, Jim Matthews, who shared in the publicity last summer. A dark, stocky set boy with blue eyes, who certainly can make the dust fly behind him. Then there is Allan Poole, Kelowna's own pride, who will give the best of them all who can handle, and perhaps, let us hope for the sake of Allan himself just a little more. Who will forget the 100 yards dash last year? Inches divided them, and it looks as if this year Dougald McDougall will have to be there with his instruments, to say which will break the tape first. Every man is a 10 second man, and every man is in the pink of condition, and with a fast track and a favourable day, that 10 seconds should be broken this year.

In the 440 and 880 from the Coast there will be Hal Odium, one of the finest fellows who ever put his foot into a spiked shoe. A gentleman on and off the track. Tremendously popular wherever he goes. Crouching at the starting line with him will be Jack Fraser. Tall and slight—and, girl!—a very fine looking lad, with a most engaging smile and speed to burn. That race between Odium and Fraser, irrespective of any other entries, and there is sure to be real opposition from the Interior, should be worth going many miles to see.

AND THE MILE! Oh boy! Just imagine it! Dave Garbutt, Kelowna's own Dave, is coming up with the gang. Dave has been training since Jan. 1st for this big race. He accepted the invitation just as fast as the return mail left Duncan. Is he in shape? Well, let us whisper in your ear. Just the other day he ran in an 8 1/2 mile race in Victoria. Eight and a half miles is not his distance, but he was only nosed out in the last 100 yards. O yes, our Dave is in shape, and against him will run George Caird, who captivated the crowd last year with his fine mile race. Caird is undoubtedly one of the best milers in the province, and it should be a rare battle with Garbutt.

There are other dark horses likely to appear; we cannot divulge their names just yet, but Kelowna and Okanagan Valley folks can be assured that they will see on May 24th the very pick of Coast athletes. You people who sit in the stands cannot possibly realize the pleasure it is to have dealings with fellows such as are coming on May 24th. They are not only most charming personalities, but fellows who take the utmost care of themselves, and who are, in the truest sense of the word, real sportsmen. For example, the writer was hinting that, due to the depression, prizes might not be quite so large as last year, when almost in unison they said, "Well, who is worrying about prizes?" They run for the real thrill of running. In no branch of sport, and the writer has been associated with a good many, has a finer truer lot of fellows been found than in track, and particularly in those who will be the guests of Kelowna on May 24th.

Just a word. We have been boosting Kelowna—Hal Odium and I—to the skies. We feel sure that Kelowna citizens will, as always, give them a royal hand, win or lose, and greet them in that famous Kelowna way on the streets or wherever they are met. It is the best advertisement that Kelowna can get. Kelowna is known widely for its fine hospitality. There are no advertisers like sincere enthusiastic appreciative youths. They talk.

BRITAIN'S POLICY ON TARIFF REDUCTIONS

LONDON, May 4.—Countries entitled under existing treaties to most favoured nation treatment will enjoy the benefit of any reductions now given under Britain's trade treaties. Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman announced today in the House of Commons.

The British government, he said, proposed to undertake negotiations with other foreign countries and certainly would not be prepared to continue indefinitely to afford full most favoured nation treatment to countries which show themselves unwilling to meet the "reasonable requirements" of Britain with regard to United Kingdom goods.

A woman is always happy before a glass, says a novelist. And some men after two or three.

The Interior boys will have a rare chance to test their skill. Remember, fellows these Coast stars are not supermen but just ordinary fellows who have made an extraordinary effort. They have won their present position in the world of athletics by discipline, rigid training and sacrifice. There is no royal road to the throne in athletics any more than in learning.

Roll on, 24th. We can scarcely wait to hear the crack of the gun. Let's go.
